

'HIDDEN HISTORIES AND RECORDS OF ANTIQUITY'

ESSAYS ON SAXON AND MEDIEVAL LONDON FOR JOHN CLARK,
CURATOR EMERITUS,
MUSEUM OF LONDON

London and Middlesex Archaeological Society Special Paper 17

'HIDDEN HISTORIES AND RECORDS OF ANTIQUITY':
ESSAYS ON SAXON AND MEDIEVAL LONDON FOR
JOHN CLARK, CURATOR
EMERITUS, MUSEUM OF LONDON

London and Middlesex Archaeological Society Special Paper 17, 2014

Price £25 + £3.20 post and packing

Special Price: £20 + £3.20 post and packing until 31 December 2014

ISBN 978-0-903290-68-5
Published July 2014

This volume is a tribute to John Clark and his long career in the Guildhall Museum and the Museum of London. It celebrates his work on many aspects of Saxon and medieval archaeology and history, and his enquiries into the myths and legends that have built up around London and its people. The book is edited by five of his former Museum colleagues, and there are 37 other contributors. It is illustrated in colour throughout.

Order your copy with this slip ► -----

To: Karen Thomas, London & Middlesex Archaeological Society, Mortimer Wheeler House, 46 Eagle Wharf Road, London N1 7ED

I enclose a cheque for £..... forcopy/ies of Hidden histories and records of antiquity (cheque payable to 'London & Middlesex Archaeological Soc')

Name:.....

Address:

.....POST CODE.....

HH1