

LAMAS Research Fund summary of awards: 2005–2019

2005	Peter Hammond Ebenezer Church: C19th Clay Pipe manufacture in Pentonville	£750.00
	Bruce Watson (MoLAS) Tudor metalwork from Trump Street	£4250.00
2006	Roman London map (MoLAS)	£4675
2007	No award
2008	Lyn Blackmore (MoLAS): 'John Walker Baily and the archaeology of the Hanseatic Kontor in London'	£4320.00
	Simon MacNeill-Ritchie: research and production of a DVD and article on 'The Royal Victoria Patriotic School, Wandsworth Common'	£1110.00
2009	Jane Corcoran (MOLA): Syon Palaeochannel	£4420
2010	Nick Holder, via LAARC: Publishing the medieval friaries of London: assessing the architectural fragments and building material	£3885
2011	Harvey Sheldon: Highgate Wood Roman Pottery Publication:	£4904 (NB this grant was subsequently not paid as alternative means of publication were found)
2012–14	No award
2015	Nick Holder and Mark Samuel, a painted reconstruction of Black Friars in 1500, and the subsequent use of the image on the cover of the Society's Transactions	£2000
	Glynn Davis ' Forgotten but not Lost: Re-discovering the Romans in the Archaeological Archive ', support for the publication of 5 short articles, some in Transactions , some elsewhere	£2446.50
2016	Caroline Sandes, research for and production of a paper on 'Rediscovering the original Barbican',	£3850
2017	Nick Holder, production of the illustrations for the article to appear in	£776

LAMAS Research Fund summary of awards: 2005–2019

	the Antiquaries Journal 'The thirteenth-century chapterhouse of Black Friars, London',
	Ian Betts, production of a paper on 'Queen Anne's bagnio and other Georgian bathing establishments'	£2671
2018	No award
2019	John Schofield and Rebecca Gordon's analysis of the animal bones from the 10 th –13 th century pits at Milk Street 'The Search for Jewish Food in London's Medieval Jewry'	£3500